The following is a breakdown of my thoughts on the TV Week Logos and how they relate to the group of players the Saints re-signed and traded for after last year's draft. Bacarri Rambo - Defense/Offense Bacarri Rambo is one of the most impressive new additions to the Saints roster. He was out of football after the 2015 season, and while he didn't show what he was capable of on the field, you could tell that he was a very good football player. Yes, he got into trouble with the law, but that's something that happens in the offseason, not during the season. Regardless, Rambo is currently a free agent, and this is just good business for the Saints. A big boy like him could easily help out on special teams, and he's also a great pass rusher, something that the Saints needed. Rico Gathers - Mid- to High Round Draft Pick Rico Gathers has big shoes to fill as he comes in to replace Dannell Ellerbe, but I think he can be successful. He's a tough guy who is a great run defender, something the Saints need
